

I cannot imagine why (perhaps money is the root of all "evil") XM or any other satellite companies-to-be should not be allowed to broadcast factual information re:traffic /weather. XM is an ultimately sensible priviledge for citizens of this country, and I would expect the FCC to reject NAB'S petition 04-160.